

REVIEWS

Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are noble, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report, if there is any virtue and if there is anything praiseworthy—meditate on these things. Philippians 4:8

Lost Boy: My Story

By Greg Laurie

ISBN: 978-0-83074-578-4

In this autobiography, Greg Laurie speaks candidly about his struggles, challenges, and how his life was radically transformed by Jesus Christ. Born out of wedlock, he was raised in a dysfunctional home with his seven-time divorced, alcoholic mother. Searching for meaning, Greg immersed himself in partying and drugs. At age 17, Greg accepted Christ as his Savior. Now he is dedicated to reaching others like him. Greg is the founder of the Harvest Crusade and senior pastor of Harvest Christian Fellowship in Riverside, CA. Hardback, 224 pages.

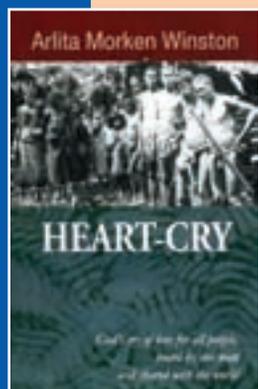

Calvary Chapel Journal, Vol. 1

By Calvary Chapel Authors

ISBN: 978-1-59751-046-2

Applicable for both the pastor and the layperson, this compilation journal covers relevant topics for today's Christian ranging from the significance of the Dead Sea Scrolls, bioethics, biblical interpretation, doctrine, a look at Islam, the Emergent Church, and other articles. Among the ten contributing authors are Pastors Chuck Smith and Brian Brodersen. Other contributors include Calvary Chapel pastors, scientists, educators, and professors. A second volume is underway for later this year. Paperback, 112 pages.

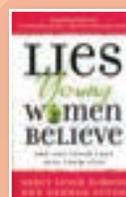

Heart-Cry

By Arlita Morken Winston

ISBN: 978-1-42512-172-3

Arlita Winston lived with her missionary parents, David and Helen Morken, in the jungles of Sumatra. She shares how they braved wild panthers and pythons, head-hunters, hardship, and even death to bring God's love to the native people. "This story needs to be told and known, for surely it will inspire others to fully devote their lives to the will of God," said Pastor Chuck Smith. Paperback, 276 pages.

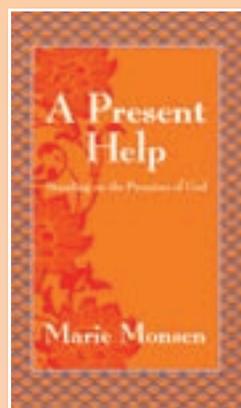

Lies Young Women Believe

By Nancy Leigh DeMoss and Dannah Gresh

ISBN: 978-0-80247-294-6

This book exposes 25 specific lies commonly believed by young women about a wide variety of subjects—including God, Satan, self, guys, relationships, and faith. It includes dozens of real-life interviews and testimonies of overcoming those lies. The book helps young women learn how to practically apply truth to these areas based on God's Word. Nancy Leigh DeMoss is the bestselling author of Lies Women Believe, and Dannah Gresh is the co-founder of Pure Freedom, a ministry which equips young people to live in purity. Paperback with photos, 208 pages.

A Present Help: Standing on the Promises of God

by Marie Monsen

ISBN: 978-1-59751-044-8

Marie Monsen was a Norwegian missionary instrumental in a revival in China in the early 20th Century. The Lord led her safely through bandit- and pirate-infested territories as she shared His Word with the Chinese. This classic, true story testifies of how God protected her and others through His presence and His promises. The reader will be encouraged to stand on God's Word and see Him as a very present help in time of need. Paperback, 112 pages.